Miss Lillie Fred leaves shortly to visit relatives in Fort Worth, before leaving to spend the rest of the summer in the East.

Miss Ida Mae Goldberg leaves in a few days for the East. This young lady just graduated from Miss Nellie Buck's private school with an average of A, which marks a very successful year for her.

Mrs. Joe Snaman and sister, Miss Sara Cohn, visited Dallas last week.

Mr. Joe Block of Dallas spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Dr. H. Bick.

Mr. Hyman Kirschner of Barlett has been visiting the J. S. Cohn family on West Washington.

On Sunday morning, May 23, at 10:30 o'clock at Temple Rodef Sholom, the following children will be confirmed: Hortense Schoneberg, Mollie Ellis, Yette Rosenberg, Sophie Goldberg, Annie Epstein, Bessie Kestner, Reva Tobias, Simon Wise, Sol Cohn, Adrian Sanger, Harold Block. At 8:30 in the evening a reception and dance will be given at the Progress hall for the confirmands.

Miss Sara Cohn was a week-end guest of Miss Belle Goldberg in Fort Worth.

The Council of Jewish Women and Temple Sisterhood will entertain with a reception for the confirmation class on next Sunday evening, May 23, at 8:30 at the Progress club.

Bride Complimented.

Miss Annie Genecov was honoree when Misses Marie and Ania Genecov gave a buncó party followed by a linen shower.

During the games candy was served and the gifts were brought in on a miniature boat all in pink and white. Pink and white adorned the rooms.

The groom-elect was in the 127th Infantry, 32nd Division at Camp MacArthur.

Little Pearl Genecov called "All aboard for Wisconsin," as it was brought in.

Lovely refreshments of cream and cake in pink and white were served.

The tally cards were wedding bells.

The favors for high score, booby and consolation were won by Mrs. D. Adams, Mrs. Lebowitz and Miss Goldie Levisohn.

Confirmation services will be held at Temple Rodef Sholom on Sunday, May 23, at 10 o'clock. The confirmands this year are: Yetta Rosenberg, Hortense Shonberg, Bessie Kestner, Reva Tobias, Annie Epstein, Ida Brickman, Mollie Ellis, Sophia Goldberg, Sol Cohen, Adrian Sanger, Simon Wise and Harold Block.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Fred of Fort Worth were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Fred, for a few days.

On Sunday evening there was held a meeting of the Jewish people of Waco at the Progress Club, for the purpose of discussing the necessity of a community house. Mr. S. Hirschberg was chairman of the meeting and introduced the following speakers: Mrs. I. Simons, Mr. I. A. Goldstein, Rabbi Mact and Mr. Harry Freeman. During the evening musical numbers were rendered by Mary Levy and Messrs. Harry and Gus Levy. The Sachs Trio, composed of Bernard, Jacques and Aubrey Sachs, entertained the audience with three selections from their orchestra. It is hoped that by next fall we will have our community house completed, and with the help of all Waco Jewry it is planned to have a building erected of which we shall be extremely proud.

Mr. B. Novick of New York was a visitor in our city this week.

Mrs. Ben Levy of Missouri was the guest of her sister, Mrs. I. Frankfort, during the week.

The Sabbath School class of Miss Sadye Berkman entertained the members of the confirmation class with a "picnic party" in the basement of the Temple on Saturday night. Games and contests were enjoyed and the guests were served red lemonade, ringer snaps and lolly-pops. The following were present at this enjoyable affair: Misses Tillie Lazarus, Helen Marks, Hazel Levinson, Reva Tobias, Mollie Ellis, Thelma Novich, Bessie Kestner, Thelma Levinson, Adrian Sanger, Simon Wise, Julius Berkman, Harold Knopp, Harold Block, Rabbi Macht; Messdames Knopp, Levinson and Tobias, and Miss Sadye Berkman.

Concluding Meeting of Jewish Council. The meeting last week of the Council of Jewish Women was the last one for the fiscal year, and in recounting the organization's many fine achievements the acting president, Mrs. J. Schonberg, said:

The Waco section, Council of Jewish Women, has gained a pre-eminently consummate year of big, far-reaching attainments. In the past transition, scores of fine, worth-while activities have been accomplished and fostered, and many other movements which I hope to see grow in the future, have been launched. Our meetings were devoted to the consideration of important topics, and I wish time and space permitted my chronicling for you here and now the splendid and proficient achievements of each and every co-worker. But after all, "By the work is the worker known," so the year's work will speak for itself.

In the Sunday school, the kindergarten has been presented with a phonograph and suitable records, and money has been given toward defraying the expense of Sunday school prizes for the children.

One of the finest accomplishments of the Council are the activities of the Sewing circle; donations of material and money, secured by myself and others, helped us to finish many garments and send two boxes of them to the immigration detention station at Ellis Island.

The replete fullness of the coffers of the Memorial fund has enabled us to assist a young lady in furthering her education and a substantial donation was sent to the Farm school in Pennsylvania, where young Jewish men receive an agricultural education without fee. We have had, unfortunately, many deaths in the community, but the comfort and relief your flower money brings, wherever it is directed, is ample proof of the fine work this committee is doing.

Money has been sent to a number of institutions in Palestine, the Humane society, War Sufferers' Relief, Consumptive Relief and others.

The Cook book, the edition of which is now exhausted, was a source of income during the year.

The Philanthropic committee was instrumental in restoring a young girl to her mother in New York, from whom she had been separated for a number of years.

The Council has an enviable position among the Federated Women's Clubs of the city, and for no other one thing is it more respected and looked up to than for the cultural uplift it exercises over its members. It has been my privilege and pleasure, as your acting president, to represent you at the New Year's reception given by the City Federation, and also at a number of executive board meetings of that body, and I have always been most graciously received.

Through the untiring efforts of Mrs. L. Fred, chairman of the membership committee, I am glad to report an increase in membership of 45.

The Social committee has arranged two enjoyable entertainments. The Press correspondent always managed to give these, as well as all other Council work, adequate publicity.

The Council is an integral part of all civic life, and I have assisted the Committee on Civic Affairs very often, such as the opening of the Bell's Hill Soup Kitchen which our president, Mrs. I. Friedlander, called into life, and of which the Young Men's Business League at a recent meeting made a most flattering mention. In this connection, the fruitful efforts of Mrs. Alex Sanger and Mrs. H. Archenhold deserve especial mention.

The Red Cross seal sale, of which I was chairman, brought out our loyal workers to a very worthy cause. A cake (Continued on Page 16)
